2017 income guidelines

Insure Oklahoma has updated its income guidelines for the Employer-Sponsored Insurance and Individual Plan programs. The new income limits are effective May 1, 2017, and reflect the annual federal poverty threshold adjustments made by the Department of Health and Human Services. Updated brochures will be available in the coming weeks.

Now accepting larger nonprofits

There's good news for Oklahoma nonprofit organizations that previously may not have qualified for Insure Oklahoma. The program is now accepting nonprofits with 500 or fewer employees.

To qualify, the organizations must meet all other Insure Oklahoma criteria, such as offering a qualified health plan and being registered with the state of Oklahoma. Nonprofits that wish to apply may do so at www.insureoklahoma.org.

Join Certified Healthy Oklahoma

Certified Healthy Oklahoma, the state's free wellness certification program for businesses, schools, churches and other organizations, is gearing up for its 2017 application period. The application period will open in August, but your organization can begin preparing now with the program's free resources that can help satisfy criteria for the certification.
